Paula: Let's not distinguish between them.

Rebecca: Let's just drink a lot more alcohol! And then high five each other as we make a bunch of blanket statements!
Let's generalize about men, let's generalize about men. Let's take one bad thing about one man and apply it to all of them. Let's conflate all the guys, let's gen-er-al-ize_ a-bout_ men!

Verse 2:

All men are com-plete-ly re-pressed. Uh-huh. All men only want_ to have sex. There are no ex-cep-tions, all_ three billion men are like this. All three point six billion men.

All men are emotion-y stunted. Whensked how they fell, ev-ry man's always grunt ed!

about themselves, as opposed to women, who always listen and never think about themselves?!

Paula, Valencia & Heather:

Ooh, I hear you, girl.

Chorus 2:

All:

Let's generalize about men,

Let's get super lit and not _ admit this is some kind of pri-mal rit-u-al we need now and then. Maybe our spir-its will rise if we gen-er-al-ize a-bout men! All men are stu-pid and child-ish. Ev-en the ones who are "smart and ma-ture".

All ev'ry man does ev'ry day is watch porn, eat wings, burp, fart and snore.

Rebecca: What about gay men? Paula: Oh no, they're fine.

Gay men are all really great. Ev'ry single one!
Paula & Rebecca: They're never mean, just sassy, they're all completely adorable and fun!

All: So let's focus for now on straight men, let's just generalize about them. They're all Paula: mon-sters!  They're murd-er-ers!  They're rap-ists!  To-tal-ly.

Rebecca: They're rap-ists!

Heather: To-tal-ly.

Paula: Wait... I have sons!

Heather, Valencia & Rebecca: Your sons are gon-na be rap-ists!
