Verse 1:

So this is the end of the movie, whoa whoa whoa whoa

but real life is 'n't a movie, no, no, no, no

You want things to be wrapped up neatly the way that stories do.

You're lookin' for answers, but answers aren't lookin' for you. Because

Chorus 1:

life is a gradual series of revelations that occurred over a period of time.
It's not some carefully crafted story, it's a mess, and we're all gonna die.

If you saw a movie that was like real life you'd be like, "What the hell was that movie about?"

It was really all over the place. Life doesn't make narrative sense.
Verse 2:

We tell ourselves that we're in a movie, whoa whoa whoa.

Each one of us thinks we've got the starring role, role, role, role.
But the truth is some-times you're the lead and some-times you're an extra just walking by in the back-ground like me, Josh Groban.

Chorus 2:

Be-cause life is a grad-ual series of reve-la-
- tions that occur over a period of time. Some things might happen that seem connected.

- ed, but there's not always a reason or rhyme. People aren't characters, they're complicated and their choices don't always make sense. That being said, it's really messed
